ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Theme 2001-2002 : "Mankind is our Business"

Rotary is in the business of people helping people, with our end product being service. And never before has there been such a demand for our product. People in every part of our world are in desperate need of the help and comfort that Rotary service brings. But we cannot hope to reach even a fraction of those who are suffering if Rotary's internal health is failing. It is up to every Rotarian, every Rotary club and every Rotary District to address the issues that can help us to strengthen our organization from within. Never before in all of human history has there been such a need for Rotarians and Rotary Clubs. I believe it is Rotary's destiny to become the more important nonprofit, nongovernment, and nonreligious organization in the world's history. In the words of one 20th century statesman, "Rotary has a rendezvous with destiny."

-Rotary International President, Richard D. King
